

CCY

CHRISTIE'S AMSTERDAM

FINE ASIAN WORKS OF ART AND SCULPTURE, PRE-COLUMBIAN ART, FINE EASTERN RUGS AND CARPETS FINE FURNITURE, CLOCKS AND WORKS OF ART

Including the properties of Jonkheer P. H. van de Wall Repelaer van Puttershoek, Puttershoek, Prof. Dr. J. M. Timmers, Maastricht and The late Mr. S. J. Mak van Waay

THURSDAY 23 MAY AND FRIDAY 24 MAY 1985

FRIDAY, 24TH MAY 1985
CODE 'MAGGIE'

MORNING SESSION, AT 11.00 A.M.
PRECISELY

PEWTER, METALWORK, VARIA AND SCULPTURES
(LOTS 331-478)

PEWTER
(LOTS 331-361)

- 331 A rectangular hotwater bottle with screw top - 26 cm wide, Dutch, 19th Century; an oval box, the cover engraved with initials in a cartouche; an oval tray; and an ink-pot (4)
f 80-120
- 332 A vase-shaped coffee-urn with reeded cover, the body with two ring handles, lyre-shaped tap, on circular wood base 40 cm high, early 19th Century
f 250-350
- 333 A pear-shaped coffee-urn with loose cover, the body with scroll handle, the tap with a lyre-shaped spigot, on three scroll feet, on a brass and copper triangular and pierced trivet 49 cm high, Holland, 19th Century (2)
f 400-600
- 334 A Dutch circular brandy-bowl with pierced shaped handles and flower motif in the centre - 11 cm diam.; a Dutch circular plate with accolade border - 24 cm diam.; and a German circular plate engraved with a helmeted figure and text 'Lyderik de Buck.l. - 23.5 cm diam., 19th Century (3)
f 100-200
- 335 A German oval dish with double moulded accolade border with initials M.M. - 43 cm wide, 19th Century; and a Flemish baluster-shaped wine-flagon with spout, plain handle to the domed cover with name Claus - 28 cm high, 19th Century (2)
f 300-400
- 336 A Dutch baluster shaped 'engelenkan', with plain handle and thumb piece to the later cover, on circular base 28 cm high, late 18th/19th Century
f 150-200
- 337 A cylindrical tapering wine-flagon with plain handle and thumb piece to the cover 19 cm high, 19th Century
f 100-150
- 338 A tapering cylindrical tankard of pint capacity with scroll handle - 12.5 cm high; and a holy water font, the backplate shaped as a crucifix - 13 cm high, 19th Century (2)
f 150-200
- 339 An English circular charger, with moulded rim 42 cm diam., late 18th Century
f 300-400
- 340 A German waved tureen in Rococo style, the cover with urn finial, shaped handles, the body with text 'E.Steigertahl: Seesen: 1839', within cartouche, on shaped openwork base 35 cm wide
f 300-400
- 341 A pear-shaped feeding-bottle with screw top, on circular base 17 cm high, Dutch, 19th Century
f 400-600

[344]

[343]

342 A vase-shaped pepper-pot; and a measure of half deciliter capacity, 19th Century (2)

f 100-150

343 A cylindrical tapering 'Glockenkanne', the screw top with ring handle, the spirit with hinged cover, the body engraved with a flower 30 cm high, Swiss, 19th Century

f 600-800

See illustration

344 A hexagonal 'Glockenkanne', the screw top with ring handle, the spout with hinged cover, the body engraved with a stylised flower ornament and initials and dates 1836, 1851

24.5 cm high, Swiss, 19th Century

f 600-800

See illustration

345 A Dutch baluster-shaped wine-flagon with spout, double scroll handle and shell-shaped thumb piece to the cover - 24 cm high, 19th Century; and a French baluster-shaped wine-flagon with plain handle and shaped thumb piece to the cover, on circular base - 23 cm high, 19th Century (2)

f 300-400

346 A cylindrical measure of half liter capacity, square handle and shaped thumb piece to the hinged cover, stamped with initials 17 cm high, French, 19th Century

f 100-200

347 A deep circular charger with moulded rim

42 cm diam., Dutch, 19th Century

f 300-500

[352]

[355]

[357]

[356]

[353]

[354]

348 A fine set of three chargers with moulded rim
44 cm diam., Dutch, 19th Century (3)
f 800-1.200

349 An octagonal spirally-turned bottle with ring handle to the screw top 25 cm high, German, 19th Century
f 300-500

350 A French baluster-shaped wine-flagon with plain thumb piece to the circular cover, plain handle, on circular base 17 cm high, 18th Century
f 500-700

351 A set of four tapering cylindrical apothecary measures of various capacities, each with square handle, on circular base, probably Austrian 7.5 cm to 12.5 cm, late 19th Century (4)
f 600-800

352 A tapering cylindrical Stuart flagon with scroll handle, plain thumb piece to the circular cover with knob finial, on spreading circular base 25 cm high, English, 17th Century

f 1.500-2.000

See illustration

353 A German ovoid flagon, with shaped thumb piece to the flat circular cover, scroll handle, on circular base
15 cm high, 18th Century

SEE:
E.Hintze, Die Deutschen Zinngiesser und ihre Marken, 1964, I, nr.378

f 400-600

See illustration

[359]

[361]

[358]

[360]

354 A cylindrical tankard, the domed cover with plain thumb piece, scroll handle
12 cm high, Dutch, late 17th Century

COMPARE:

Tin uit Europese landen, J.F.H.H.Beekhuizen, 1979, page 26, ill.

SEE:

B.Dubbe, Tin en tinnegieters in Nederland 1978, ill.161, fig. 368

f 800-1.200

See illustration (page 60)

355 A French wine-flagon with hamer-head thumbpiece to the heart-shaped cover, scroll handle
17 cm high, 18th Century

f 800-1.200

See illustration (page 60)

356 A German charger, the broad rim engraved with date 1712 and initials I.C.L.
30 cm diam., 17th/18th Century

SEE:

E.Hintze, Die Deutschen Zinngiesser und ihre Marken, 1964, I, no.990

f 1.400-1.800

See illustration (page 60)

357 A German cylindrical tapering 'Schleifkanne', the cover with turned finial, scroll thumb piece, scroll handle, the body with three lion's masks, on three mermaid shaped feet
44 cm high, late 17th Century

SEE:

E.Hintze, Die Deutsche Zinngiesser und ihre Marken, 1964, I, no.676

f 4.000-6.000

See illustration (page 60)

358 A French or Swiss baluster-shaped ewer, with double scroll handle, on domed circular base
27 cm high, 18th Century

COMPARE:
Tin uit Europese landen, J.F.H.H.Beekhuizen, 1979, page 58 ill.

f 1.000-1.400

See illustration (page 61)

359 A large baluster-shaped wine-flagon with spout, scroll handle and thumb piece to the domed cover, with sheep finial, on raised circular foot, bearing touchmark on handle 34 cm high, 18th Century, possibly Swiss or South German

f 3.000-4.000

See illustration (page 61)

360 A French baluster-shaped flagon, plain handle and double acorn thumbpiece to the heart-shaped cover
27 cm high, 18th Century

SEE:
Tin uit Europese landen, J.F.H.H.Beekhuizen, 1979, page 50 ill.

f 2.500-3.500

See illustration (page 61)

361 A Swiss baluster-shaped Wallis flagon with double lobed thumb piece and a ram's head to the heart-shaped cover, plain handle and a chain handle, on raised circular foot, the cover with touchmark P.Antoin Simavah
29 cm high, 18th Century

SEE:
Tin uit Europese landen, J.F.H.H.Beekhuizen, page 67, ill.6

f 5.000-7.000

See illustration (page 61)

METALWORK (LOTS 362-387)

362 A Dutch brass pear-shaped decorated kettle with wood handle 23 cm high, 19th Century

f 180-220

363 A pair of three-light brass candlesticks in Gothic style, multi-baluster stem, on broad circular-base 39 cm high, 19th Century (2)

f 400-600

364 A circular brass tea-caddy with cover to the tapering top, the front with chased coat-of-arms flanked by figures 17 cm high

f 30-50

365 A pair of brass candlesticks on fluted tapering stem, on square base 28 cm high, 19th Century (2)

f 150-200

366 A pair of brass candlesticks, each with two scrolling arms, the arms attached to the muzzle of a lion holding a coat-of-arms of Amsterdam, on baluster shaped stem and circular base 38 cm high (2)

f 150-250

367 An oval brass tobacco box, the cover engraved with portrait medallions of Prince William V and his wife, within foliage and an orange tree in the center, the reverse with celebration text to the House of Orange, the sides with foliage 14 cm wide, Dutch, 18th Century

f 600-800

See illustration (page 63)

368 An octagonal brass tobacco box, the front and reverse with pierced decoration of the Prodigal Son, the sides with scrolling foliage and trellis
15 cm wide, Dutch, 18th Century

f 800-1.200

See illustration (page 63)

369 cove and t Hooj with 17.5 c

f 250
See il

370 cover Story with J with fl
10.5 c

f 300-See ill