

6848

RARE EARLY PEWTER

Examples from a Recent Exhibition at the Usher Gallery, Lincoln (Sept.-Oct. 1962)

Arranged in association with the Society of Pewter Collectors.

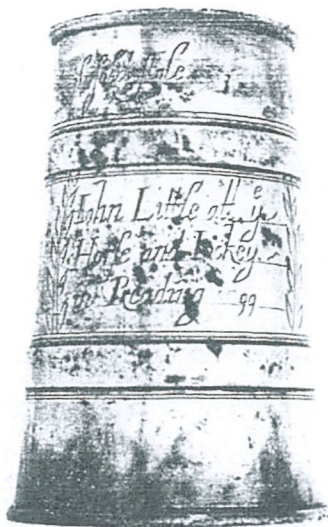

(Above). Lidded flagon, c. 1680, inscribed "EX DONO SAMUEL SYMONDS, GENT". Height 9¾ inches. (Mr. C. C. Minchin).

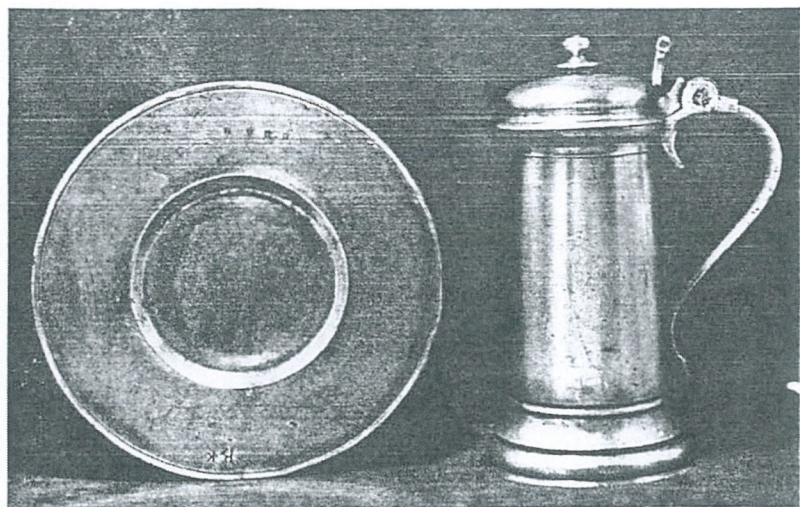

(Above). Two-earred porringer, c. 1695-1700. Bowl diameter, 5¾ inches. The base with cast medallion of William III. (Mr. R. F. Michaelis).

Three tankards; from left to right c. 1675, a rare Stuart type; c. 1675; and c. 1680, with touch mark of Samuel Billing, Mayor of Coventry, 1704. (Mr. K. W. Bradshaw).

Lidless tavern pot c. 1690-1700, by Henry Frewin of Reading. Height 7 inches. With inscription and words: "If SOLD STOLE". (Mr. C. C. Minchin).

(Above). Paten formerly at Saxelby Church, Leicestershire, c. 1660, diameter 9¾ inches; and flagon, c. 1635, Height 10¼ inches to knop. (Capt. A. V. Sutherland-Graeme).