

6886

A BOWL BY SAMUEL DANFORTH (c. 1800)

Perhaps originally a christening bowl; in any case an exceptionally fine example of early American pewter. The mark of Samuel Danforth, of Hartford, which occurs on the bottom of the bowl, within, is likewise reproduced.

Owned by the Right Reverend James De W of Perry, Junior.

